GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS RAYNOR TO MUSEUM BOARD OF DIRECTORS

RALEIGH -- Gov. Mike Easley appointed Laura Raynor of Raleigh to serve on the North Carolina Museum of History Associates Board of Directors.

Raynor has been the Director of External Affairs for the Carolina Ballet since February 2000. She served as the Senior Director for Honored Guest Operations and Hospitality of the 1999 Special Olympic World Summer Games Organizing Committee. Raynor also served as the Director of Volunteer Services and Coordinator of Senior Friends for the Raleigh Community Hospital from 1994-1998.

The North Carolina Museum of History Associates is the largest state museum support organization in the country, with more than 14,000 members. It raises private funds for the museum, exhibits and festivals. The Board of Directors manages the business, property and affairs of the museum. Each member serves a three-year term.
